

INTERNATIONAL MARKET PLACE FOR MEETING INDIAN PRODUCTIONS

The cover picture is a scene from 1955 classic Shree 420 featuring legendary actor, director Raj Kapoor with Nargis. IIFTC offers a tribute to the creative genius of Raj Kapoor, who was the first mainstream Bollywood Director to shoot his film abroad (Sangam - 1964). A pioneering trend that evolved into a full-fledged industry.

India is home to the world's largest film industry, producing nearly 2000 films annually. Significant number of these films - estimated over 200 annually, are shot in foreign locations in over 65 countries, thus creating a large market of outbound film productions and positively contributing to local film industry and tourism sector.

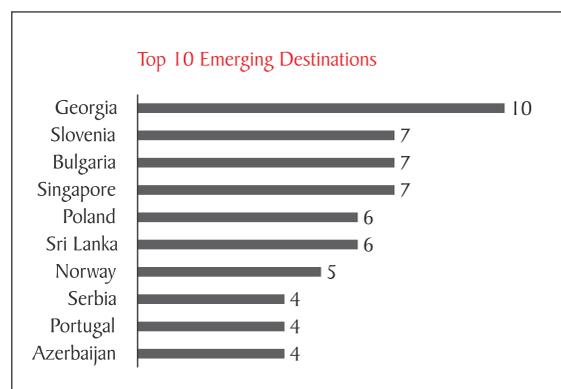

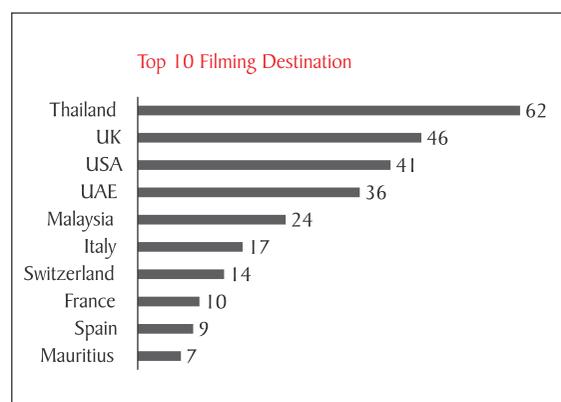

Since its inception in 2013, IIFTC has worked with a single minded objective to bring the global film locations to the Indian film industry. IIFTC has proved itself to be an undisputed leader in its space by hosting over 25 international events with participation from over 55 countries.

Now, India's premier locations show, IIFTC brings to you an International Market Place for Meeting Indian Productions.

IN FY 2018-19 INDIA PRODUCED 1813 FILMS IN 44 LANGUAGES
