

The image consists of three separate photographs. The leftmost photograph shows a traditional stone wall with a crenellated top and arched openings, set against a blue sky with bare trees. The middle photograph depicts a modern, white, curved building with a large glass facade, situated on a green lawn with colorful objects. The rightmost photograph shows an ancient stone structure with two tall columns and a central archway, with a garden in the foreground.
